FIRE DISTRICT MATTERS

As was noted in The Farmer last night, the fire commissioners of the town laid out a tentative fire district to be submitted to the state authorities for approval. The proposed district, as laid out is only for the Fairfield fire company and does not in any way affect the companies in Stratfield and Southport. The state law provides that in towns where there is no regularly appointed fire marshal the chief of the volunteer department shall be known as fire In this town there three volunteer companies and now the question has arisen as to which chief is the fire marshal of the town. The duties of the fire have recently been laid out by Supt. Egan of the State Police, and were outlined in a letter read before the fire department at its meeting on last Tuesday evening. Herefater all alarms of fire must be reported to the state police within forty-eight hours, whether the services of the fire department are needed or not, with a penalty of $100 for failure to comply with the above, and a fee of $2 for each alarm reported. B. H. S. MINSTREL SHOW THURSDAY AND FRIDAY.

The members of the Bridgeport High School Athletic association are working hard on their "Second Annual" minstrel production, to be given Thursday and Frieny evenings at Warner hall. The success of the minstrel show given last year as an innovation for the benefit of the baseball team has led the members of the school to make the minstrel show an annual affair, similar to the Senior play. The cast is to be made up entirely of B. H. S. fellows and fellowines, and, judging by the remarks of the select few allowed to see the rehearsals, the play will be "comedy of laughter" from beginning to end. A chorus of boys and girls, to number of 30, will render all the latest and some of the old-favorite song hits in a manner leaving nothing to be desired. Soloists, including Ezzie Dinck, Jack Devine, Vin Weldon, Charlie Brady and Hennie Erwin will delight their audiences with their musical strains. Nine girls, the Misses Hubbell, Donovan, Dillingham, sor, Topping, Baker, McDonald, Lake, and Roberts will entertain with chorus and instrumental renditions. Tickets for the play may be obtained at the Boys Dept., Y. M. C. A. any afternoon after 2:30 for either Thursday or Friday performance.
